Hi! My name is Stephen Kosmachuk (left). When I'm not at school studying 4th year Geomatics Engineering I'm at home with my three dogs, still studying 4th year Geomatics Engineering!

Hi! I'm Justine Abdelshahid (middle) and I am a 4th Year Geomatics Engineering Student at York University. I love music, movies, and surveying! I'm really excited to be a part of this challenge and I hope that I can learn more about GIS and application design through this week!

My name is Benjamin Brunson (right), and I am currently in my fourth year of Geomatics Engineering at York University. I am fascinated by spatial analysis techniques, and am always looking for learning opportunities.
